over the past forty years countries in the global north have increasingly restricted their migration policies to reduce the arrival of migrants as part of this development aid has become a central tool in the migration control strategy pursued by european countries and the us with donors international organisations and ngos becoming prominent actors in this book lorena gazzotti shows that migration control is not only exercised through fences and deportation building on extensive research in morocco gazzotti shows that aid marks the rise of a substantially different mode of migration containment one where power works beyond fast violence and its disciplinary potential is augmented precisely by its elusiveness where existing studies on border externalisation have essentialised donors international organisations and ngos with countries of origin and transit as compliant subcontractors and border control as a neat form of intervention this nuanced study unsettles such assumptions to show that bordering happens in everyday mundane fashions far away from the spectacle of border violence this title is also available as open access on cambridge core la problématique essentielle qui sous-tend l'existence du poète Karl Wolfskehl (1869-1948) est celle d'un sentiment de double appartenance car il est juif et allemand. Sa vocation poétique connaît deux moments décisifs : premièrement la rencontre en 1897 avec Stefan George, le chef de file du symbolisme allemand dont il devient l'ami fidèle et le fervent disciple, puis le triomphe du nazisme en Allemagne en 1933 qui contraint Karl Wolfskehl à partir d'abord en Italie puis en Nouvelle-Zélande. Cet exil suscite chez le poète une crise existentielle sans précédent et un renouveau dans l'écriture. À la quête de perfection formelle succède une poésie religieuse ancrée dans le judaïsme et placée sous la figure tutélaire de Job.
