Cruz emphasizes that, as the supreme law, the Constitution:

- Provides the basis for all legislative, executive, and judicial actions

Branches of Government

The

Philippine government is divided into three co-equal branches, each with distinct powers and functions: 1. The Executive - Headed by the President - Responsible for enforcing laws - Comprises the President, Vice President, Cabinet, and agencies 2. The Legislative - Composed of the Congress of the Philippines - Responsible for creating laws - Consists of two houses: the Senate and the House of Representatives 3. The Judiciary - Upholds the rule of law and interprets the Constitution - Led by the Supreme Court - Includes lower courts and special tribunals Cruz discusses the importance of checks and balances among these branches to prevent abuse of power and to uphold democratic principles.
