a superb example of victorian erotica focusing on sexual flagellation the mysteries of verbena house by etonensis was first published as two volumes in one in 1882 only 150 copies were issued probably by william lazenby at the price of four guineas the first volume was issued in 1881 under the half title birched for thieving or the punishment of miss bellasis the second volume and the full title appeared in 1882 as in most flagellant erotica the plot is rather slim verbena house is a fashionable school for young ladies in brighton miss montes a student from cuba is robbed of two golden doubloons the nominal mystery centres on the discovery of the culprit miss catherine bellasis the beautiful sixteen year old daughter of a chancery barrister during the hunt for the stolen coins a number of other offences are detected miss hatherton possesses an obscene book john cleland s fanny hill and miss hazeltine has hidden a bottle of gin the girls are condemned to be flogged by the headmistress miss sinclair volume i is taken up with the narration of these events volume ii is primarily concerned with the castigation of the culprits up until the detection of her students misdemeanours miss sinclair the headmistress has been averse to corporal punishment after deciding that the girls are to be beaten she seeks the advice of the school s spiritual advisor the reverend arthur calvedon on the appropriate disciplinary procedure a devotee of the rod he becomes miss sinclair s lover in the process and during the course of the girls chastisement miss sinclair undergoes a remarkable conversion she is transformed from a maid mistress into a lewd votary registering a vow to become a fearless heroine of the birch and make the sufferings of her pupils minister to her devices the book's title hints at this lascivious metamorphosis the psycho spiritual transformation it represents is a deeper mystery than the question of who stole miss montes doubloons this classic of victorian erotic flagellatory fiction recounts the wonderful ways in which miss sinclair headmistress of one of the most fashionable and expensive ladies schools in england maintains discipline and order amongst its 50 curious and unruly students by application of rod birch and horsewhip our protagonist will shame all who commit indiscretion who cavort and steal away into each others beds and who steal but will she meet her match with the headstrong young lady called miss bellasis or will the thief succumb to her punishment enough to change her ways and how will reverend arthur calvedon for surely the humiliation would be doubly so the mysteries of verbena house a long revered and referenced work and ode to all deed and devices corporal in punishment brims with the naughtiness one would expect of an era where repression oft gives way to wild abandon swish although erotica has always existed pornography is a recent phenomenon as late as the eighteenth century the word did not exist from the secret museums to the pornography trials of madame bovary and lady chatterly's lover to mapplethorpe cable tv and the internet walter kendrick explores how conceptions of pornography relate to issues of freedom of expression and censorship he provides too a fascinating portrait gallery of the jurists artists guardians of public morality sleaze merchants and civil libertarians who have played roles in the changing definitions of pornography in his study of the journalist george augustus sala peter blake discusses the way sala's personal style along with his innovations in form influenced the new journalism at the end of the nineteenth century blake places sala at the centre of nineteenth century newspapers and periodicals and examines his prolific contributions to newspapers and periodicals in the context of contemporary debates and issues surrounding his work sala's journalistic style blake argues was a product of the very different mediums in which he worked whether it was the visual arts bohemian journalism novels pornographic plays or travel writing harkening back to a time when journalism and fiction were closely connected blake's book not only expands our understanding of one of the more prominent and interesting journalists and personalities of the nineteenth century but also sheds light on prominent nineteenth century writers and artists such as charles dickens mathew arnold william powell frith henry vizetelly and mary elizabeth braddon this work offers bibliographical descriptions of all printings of erotic fiction in english issued clandestinely during the period 1800 1930 by clandestine is meant books whose publishers and printers attempt to hide their identities usually by offering title pages whose misleading places and dates of publication may shock and amuse but which always aim to mystify using internal and external evidence an attempt is made to establish who were the printers booksellers and publishers english and continental involved in this trade the printing families or groups into which a large percentage of the material falls are classified accompanied by illustrations which identify the main printing characteristics house styles of the groups bibliographical descriptions follow a checklist of clandestine catalogues these provide valuable evidence for dating pricing and sales pitch and information on items of which no copies can now be traced the work concludes with a series of appendices which provide significant external evidence and three indexes of themes titles and names peter mendes original research builds on and significantly extends the essential pioneer work of the victorian collector and bibliographer h s ashbee pisanus fraxi k c williams first collection of short fiction takes you into the dark world of the human soul where the edges of reality take on the blurred essence of a photograph streaked with rain from the lovely but damaged title character in the novella lunaria to a naked man falling from the sky clad only in his socks from an desperately unhappy woman who chooses a dangerous transformation to a trio of sisters who grow sentient flowers that cause pregnancy from a battered wife who discovers redemption in a lost turtle to a young pregnant girl who thinks her unborn baby is dead these stories will alternately disturb provoke and challenge your perceptions of the world around us also available in an ebook downloadable version
